

Datapontis ERP

A belga Odoo S.A. nyílt forráskódú Odoo termékének továbbfejlesztett és magyarországi viszonyokra átalakított változata.

What is Odoo?

Odoo is an open-source framework used to develop enterprise management applications.

Based on PostgreSQL and distributed under the LGPL v3, Odoo is written in Python, JavaScript and XML.

Odoo by the numbers

Multilingual

2 million users worldwide
25 languages

Supported

450+ contributors
125+ translators

Feature-rich

7,000+ apps
70+ themes

Features

MVC & modular architecture
Multiple report engines:

- Webkit, QWeb

Workflow engine

ORM

Web services:

- XML-RPC, JSON-RPC

Extensible models, views & reports

Multiple data views:

- Calendar
- Kanban
- Graph
- Cube
- Map

Connectors

You can connect Odoo with:

- AccountEdge (MyOB)
- CMIS servers (Alfresco, Nuxeo)
- E-commerce platforms (Magento, Prestashop, WooCommerce)
- Redmine
- Sage
- Salesforce
- Telephony (Asterisk)

Get things well done with Odoo.

Odoo is a suite of open-source enterprise management applications. It is used by large companies, small businesses, associations and many different types of organizations to help them manage, automate, measure and optimize their operations, finances and projects.

Odoo by the numbers

Multilingual

2 million users worldwide
25 languages

Supported

450+ contributors
125+ translators

Feature-rich

7,000+ apps
70+ themes

Odoo in few words

Odoo supports various business areas:

- Accounting
- Banking
- CRM, Sales & Marketing
- Donations
- Finances
- Human Resources
- Knowledge
- Logistics
- Management Systems
- Manufacturing
- Multi-Company
- Point of sale
- Projects & Services
- Procurements & Purchases
- Website & E-commerce

and offers different vertical solutions:

- Agriculture
- Associations
- Community
- Construction
- Editing & Publishing
- Hospitality
- Internet Service Providers
- Medical
- NGO's
- Places of Worship
- Travel